

Click to access your profile.

The image shows a screenshot of the Pinterest homepage. At the top, there is a search bar and navigation links for Home, Following, and a user profile named Ellen. Below the navigation, a grid of pins is displayed. Callout boxes provide instructions: a yellow box points to the Home link, a blue box points to the search bar, an orange box points to the Following link, and a green box points to the notification and message icons. A purple box points to a pin of cookies, explaining that clicking it leads to the source page.

Click here to return to the homepage at any time.

If you're looking for something specific, you can type what you're looking for into the search box and press Enter.

Click to see recent pins from people you follow.

From here, you can see your recent notifications and direct messages.

Recent pins from the people you follow will appear whenever you sign in to Pinterest. You can click a pin to open a larger view, then click the image to navigate to the pin's original source page.

Pinning Tip! The Pinterest browser button makes it easy to save a recipe or website directly to one of your boards on Pinterest. This feature is for computers only. All you have to do is add the Pinterest browser button to your favorite browser (Internet Explorer, Firefox, Safari, Google Chrome), and you're ready to go.
